

Sample List of Endangered and Threatened Species*

Animal Species:

Woodland caribou	Florida panther	Stellar sea lion
African elephant	Snow leopard	Arabian oryx
Northern spotted owl	Black-footed ferret	Pallid sturgeon
Gray wolf	California condor	Black rhino
Kirtland's warbler	Swallowtail butterfly	Atlantic salmon
Prairie Dog	Giant panda	Whooping crane
Blue whale	Bighorn Sheep

Plant Species:

Black lace cactus	Knowlton's cactus	Eastern prairie fringed orchid
Harperella	Northeastern bulrush	Price's potato-bean
Dwarf lake iris	Leedy's roseroot
Pitcher's thistle	Virginia spiraea

Ecosystems:

Wetlands	Tropical rain forests
Coastal areas	Old-growth forests

* Beyond this sample list, you may want to do some research on what plant or animal species in your state are listed as threatened or endangered and use those species to complete the project. If you have access to the Internet, the following are some useful websites to get you started:

Sources:

Morris County Library. <<http://www.gti.net/mocolib1/species.html>>, accessed February 24, 2005. (a bibliography of materials on endangered species)

U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service. <<http://endangered.fws.gov/wildlife.html#Species>>, accessed February 24, 2005. (U.S. Fish & Wildlife Endangered Species home page, includes state lists)

Map of number of threatened and endangered species. http://ecos.fws.gov/tess_public/TESSUmap?status=listed, accessed February 24, 2005. (U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service)

