

Questions to Consider:

1. Which towns would you want to visit? Why?
2. Which towns would you want to live in? Why?
3. What are the land use issues?
4. What are some possible outcomes?
5. How does visual pollution affect a community's character? What else affects its character?
6. How can the residents of the different communities preserve their local character?
7. What lessons are to be learned from Gatlinburg as the community now tries to change some of their past development?